■ SEMINAR OVERVIEW

The IRA Update builds on your knowledge of IRA basics to address some of the more complex IRA issues your financial organization may handle. This course includes how the transitions rules work, RMDs and death distributions. We will also discuss amending documents. This is a specialty session; some previous IRA knowledge is assumed. The instructor uses real-world exercises to help participants apply information to job-related situations.

■ COURSE HIGHLIGHTS

1. Death distribution options: How SECURE and SECURE 2.0 changed some of the options but how we still use some of the old beneficiary options
2. Creating inherited IRA accounts
3. Reporting to IRS in the “year of death” and then “year after death”
4. When and how to use the “W-4R” in 2023 and what happens to the “W-4P”
5. Review RMD rules and characteristics
6. Getting ready for year end and what happens in January: Fair Market Statements, RMD Notices and 1099-Rs
7. Life expectancy tables for 2023 RMD calculations and inherited IRA RMD calculations change
8. Amendment and plan agreement update
9. RMD age now 73
10. Legislative update – SECURE and SECURE 2.0 updates

■ WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- IRA administrators, personal bankers, or member services personnel who have a working knowledge of basic IRA operations and wish to expand their expertise and provide enhanced customer service;
- A financial professional who recognizes that IRAs play an integral role in retirement planning;
- A compliance specialist with procedural oversight of IRA policies and practices; or
- Support personnel responsible for promotional materials that describe the services provided by your financial organization.

■ SEMINAR PRESENTER

Matthew Dickinson has been working with IRAs for 19 years. Matthew not only instructs, but he listens and responds to special needs and involves his audience in an effective group learning experience. Attendees are encouraged to ask questions or share concerns throughout the program.
