The SDBA 2017 State Legislative Day is your opportunity to stay up-to-date on both state and federal legislation which could affect the banking industry and to visit with state legislators. The day will include a luncheon and banking legislation review, discussion on the new administration in Washington and what it may mean for business and banking, a chance to visit with legislators at the State Capitol, and an evening reception. The Governor has also been invited to speak.

Feature Speaker: Jennifer Duffy

Jennifer Duffy is a senior editor for The Cook Political Report, where she is responsible for U.S. Senate and governors races. Founded in 1984, The Cook Political Report provides analyses of presidential, U.S. Senate, House and gubernatorial races. The New York Times has called The Cook Political Report “a newsletter that both parties regard as authoritative.”

Duffy has 30 years of experience in campaign politics, the last 27 of which have focused on non-partisan political analysis. In 1985, she served as press secretary for the National Republican Senatorial Committee; she joined The Cook Political Report in 1988 as its first assistant editor. While continuing to work as the Report’s contributing editor, Duffy also was a senior account executive with Hill and Knowlton Public Affairs Worldwide and an associate with the lobbying firm of Cassidy & Associates.

In 1995, Duffy rejoined Cook & Company full-time. She has served as an off-air analyst for NBC News on election nights from 1996 through 2014. She has been quoted in numerous publications and has appeared on ABC, NBC, CBS, CNN, PBS and C-SPAN’s “Washington Journal.” In June of 2011, BusinessInsider.com named her one of the 13 savviest political analysts in the country. Duffy is a frequent public speaker on elections and national political trends.

A native of Rhode Island, Duffy received a bachelor of arts degree in American government from Georgetown University in 1985. In May of 2012, Rhode Island College awarded her an honorary doctorate in social science.

Duffy will speak at the SDBA State Legislative Day on the new administration in Washington and what it may mean for business and banking.
